

Permission to Publish ThinkBlast

What is ThinkBlast?

THINK BLAST is a fantastic opportunity for our CLIC schools to come together to participate in a day of engaging, exciting and competitive workshops, while building on strong connections within our school network. Supervising staff and Year 9 photojournalism students at Colo High School would like to film and photograph the students involved during the day's events.

What information will be collected?

Students may be photographed or filmed whilst participating in challenges and during the presentation ceremony.

Where might this information will be published?

Edited film footage or photographic material obtained about your child may be published in print and online publications of local newspapers, via your child's primary school and Colo High School's website and social media accounts.

Permission to Publish

I give permission for my child to be photographed and filmed on 26th March, 2021 by supervising staff and Year 9 photojournalism students at Colo High for its ThinkBlast event. I give permission for this material to be published in print and electronic media including social media.
